

Haiku

what it's all about just people helping others good and kind neighbors

By Ed Crowley

RESIDENT Ed Crowley HIGHLIGHT Central Park

Ed is known as the "go-to guy" of Central Park, helping neighbors with technology, everyday activities, and many others in between.

He is a passionate poet and dedicated yoga-practitioner.

Thanks to him and all our wonderful residents!

DID YOU KNOW?

There's a difference between pets, emotional support animals, and service animals.

Follow the regulations of the Pet Policy, found in your lease.

A service animal is a dog, or in rare cases a miniature horse, that has been individually trained to do work or perform tasks for a person with a disability. An emotional support animal (ESA) is an animal that is providing emotional support to a person with a disability, just by its presence.

Congrats Leila!

Say "Congrats!" to our wonderful bookkeeper
Leila, who was awarded the Massachussetts
Public Housing Administrator (MPHA) certification on March 24th 2025. This certification requires successful completion of seven in-depth courses, taught by housing industry attorneys and accountants, addressing all major aspects of public housing management.
Join us in saying, "Good Job Leila!"

Are you a Red Sox fan?

Come join Maryellen Scott of South Shore Elder Services and your fellow residents for a televised Sox game on Thursday May 8th from 10 AM - 4 PM in the Lincoln Park Community Room and cheer on one of Boston's most iconic sports franchises.

Artists Corner

SHA resident Diane Leonard is a published writer, photographer, filmmaker, teacher, and one of America's most highly respected contemporary impressionists. She began painting in her early 20's in Boston, and has work in the permanent collection of museums, universities, corporations, and private collections.

Diane will be teaching impressionist workshops at the Scituate Senior Center and the Cohasset Art Center this spring and summer!

Gardening Reminders:

- The new grounds policy expanded your abilities to garden and plant, but remember to get ED Dan's approval first!
- If you use bark mulch, please ensure it is treated so termites don't make your home, THEIR home.
- We are trying out rain barrels at Central Park, feel free to call ext. 200 with tips or tricks!

Administration Reminders:

- Smoking is not allowed on SHA properties. If you smell something, say something and notify the office.
- Please pick up after your pet and be considerate! It is your obligation!
